for struck him on the side with his fist. Arnold then gave the fellow two blows on the head with his club, but at the second blow broke, when Taylor remarked: "—you have you now," and, grasping the officer by the throat, began to push him back at the same time delivering blows on his face. Taylor was a very stout negro, and Lieutenant Arnold, finding that he could not grapple with him and that the negro was attempting to draw his knife, drew his pistol, and placing its muzzle against Taylor's breast, fired two shots into him, one ranging near the heart. But this did not deter the negro, who continued to fight like a demon, and almost pushed the officer back to the ground, when Lieutenant nings held in inequity and the jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide. The black were very much excited over the killing and several of them mounted dry goods boxes on the street and began incendiary harangues.

Arnold fired again, the ball entering the side of Taylor's head and producing instant death. Taylor expired with a groan. Coroner J. E. ...

FAILURES.

ANOTHER INDIANAPOLIS BANK.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 19.—(Harrison bank, paid up capital $100,000, suspended this morning. John W. Claypool was appointed receiver, bond $300,000. The bank is a private concern, composed of John C. S. and Alfred Harrison, who have been supposed to be worth nearly $100,000. The bank is un-posed to be completely gutted, and it is suspected that the depositors will hardly realize 50 cents on the dollar. Among the assigned causes of the failure are alleged speculation in Wall street, and too heavy drain by the U. S. Encaustic Tile Works, of which the Harrisons are the principal owners. The worst feature of the failure is the fact that John Harrison is receiver for the defunct Indiana Banking Co., and $80,000 of the receivership money is supposed to have been in an attempt to foster up the declining fortunes of the Harrison bank. No sympathy is felt for Harrison, as he is charged with banking on capital of more bluff than money.

Luach Bros., general merchandise, at Cottage Grove, Lane County, has been attached by their creditors. They owe $55,000, of which $12,000 is to the Portland and San Francisco $18,000 is due Roldana and San Francisco, jobs, and the balance to farmers in the neighborhood. Nominal assets, $24,000. Aaron Leach, the senior partner, has been arrested at Eugene on a charge of forgery.

AUSTIN, Tex., July 19.—I Malealinsky, druggist merchant, failed yesterday for $17,000. New York and Austin creditors closing up his business. His assets are estimated at $25,000. The full liabilities are not stated.

KILLED IN THE ACCIDENT.

LONDON, July 19.—The name of the American lady killed at the railway disaster, near Peniston Wednesday, was Mrs. Carrie Edelstein, not Edelston. She was a widow and resided in New York, and was a sister-in-law of J. M. Edelston, superintendent of H.

of J. M. Reistern, manufacturer, of Harrington, England. Her body was much disfigured and only by her dress was it identified.

ANOTHER UNRELIABLE REPORT.
LONDON, July 19.—A dispatch to Reuter Telegraph Company, dated Tien Tsin, July 17, states that Carabras rejected the French ultimatum.

PARIS, July 19.—It is announced that China has accepted the provisions of the Tien Tsin treaty and has, in accordance with the demand of France, promised to withdraw Chinese troops from the Tonquin frontier. The announcement has created considerable enthusiasm, as it is now thought the difficult between France and China has been definitely settled.

PROOF AGAINST BULLETS

A Ravisher, Who Murdered a Fourteen-Year-Old Girl

After Outraging Her, Had Fifteen Leaden Slugs Shot into His Body—Left for Dead, He Denies His Words and Escapes.

RICHMOND, TEXAS, July 19.—Wednesday, as Hannah Burton, aged twelve, was returning from school, she was met by West Helton, an ex-convict, who attacked, outraged, and then killed her, burying the body in John's Creek, eight miles from here. Shortly after the girl's clothes were found, and a rope around her bloody. Learning that Helton was seen running from the place a short time before the neighbors made a search, and arrested him. He confessed, and took the party to the spot where he had buried the body. The officers started to Richmond with the prisoner, with his hands tied behind him and a rope around his neck. They were met by an infuriated crowd, who took the prisoner, tied him to a tree, and shot fifteen times at him, when he fell, apparently dead. They took the rope off and left him. After the party left, Helton got up and went home, dressed his wounds, and left yesterday morning. The coroner went out to hold an inquest, but the remains had disappeared. Officers are now hunting for Helton.

HANGINGS.

Three Black and One White Man Struck Off Heads.

ADLER, Ga., July 19.—Sam Williams, colored, was hanged at Waynesboro, Burke County, for the murder of Clem Bush two years ago. A large crowd, chiefly colored, was attracted to the scene, the number of spectators being estimated at 3,000.

CUMMINGS NELSON.

BATON ROUGE, July 19.—Cummings Nelson, convicted and sentenced at Houma, Terrebonne Parish, on the 28th of March, 1884, for the murder of John Martin, was hanged at Houma. An appeal from the Louisiana Court was taken in his case, and the judgment was confirmed May 10. The execution was public, 2,000 people being present.

VICKSBURG, Miss., July 19.—Robert Hunt and Dan Parker, both black, were hanged at Greenville. Hunt for the murder of Bartlett Ross, and Parker for murdering his nephew.

MUCH MARRIED.

Man With Five Wives Finally Has Some Trouble.

HILLSBORO, O., July 19.—At Nokomis Hillsboro night the citizens resting in the vicinity of the Eureka House were awakened about midnight by a succession of pistol shots. It was found that John Merrick, against whom a warrant on a charge of bigamy was issued a few days ago on complaint of a woman from Hana, who had left the town the day before the complaint was made, had returned on the midnight express and went to the Eureka House. Officers at once went to the house and demanded admittance, which was refused, and while they were forcing their way in, Merrick got out of a second story window and, descending by rope, made his escape in the darkness, but not until several shots had been fired after him. He had a close call and he escaped while partially dressed. It is said that five women who claim Merrick as their husband.

TWO NOONS TOGETHER.

A Double Domestic Tragedy Caused by Jealousy.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 19.—News of a dreadful double tragedy is just received from Canon City, Oregon. John Noon and wife, living near that place, had a quarrel which resulted in the former shooting and instantly killing the latter. Noon then placed the pistol to his own temple and blew out his brains. The cause of the trouble was a man named James McDaniel, a printer, of whom he was very jealous.

Felder Evidently Made Money.

NEW YORK, July 19.—It has been learned, in connection with the affairs of Arnold Constable, that not only Herbert Seymour, the cashier, but H. C. Felder, had severed his connection with the firm. Mr. Felder was seen by a reporter. He declined to speak on the subject and intimated there was an understanding that nothing should be made public. There were rumors that Felder had transferred his property at Llewellyn Park to Arnold Constable & Co. The place is often described as the finest home in New Jersey. It was generally believed that Felder was a member of the firm. His career in the house began as entry clerk fifteen years ago. Felder owns about half the stock in the Manhattan Magazine.

Mother's Friend!

A PRECIOUS HOOD TO WOMAN.

WORDS OF PRAISE.
I most earnestly entreat every female expecting to be confined to use Mother's Friend. Coupled with this entreaty I will add that during a long obstetrical practice, (forty-four years,) I have never known it to fail to produce a safe and quick delivery.

H. J. HOLMES, M. D.

A lady from one of the counties of Middle Georgia, who has been acting midwife for many years, writes: "I have disposed of all the Mother's Friend you sent me, and I am delighted with it. In every instance where it has been used, its effects have been all that I could ask. I consider it a great blessing."

A gentleman writes: "My wife used your Mother's Friend at her fourth confinement, and her testimony is that she passed through it with one-half the suffering of either of her former confinements, and recovered from its effects in much less time. She also recommended it to a lady friend who was about to be confined for the first time, and she says: 'I have never seen anyone pass through this great trial with so much ease and little suffering.'"

A QUICK AND EASY TIME.

A distinguished physician of Mississippi writes: "Every one expecting to be confined should use the Mother's Friend, or during a long obstetrical practice I have never known it to fail to produce a quick and safe delivery."

This remedy is one about which we cannot publish certificates, but it is a most wonderful instrument to be used after the first two or three months.
